Colonel Merrick said the law requires that all male persons, except certain nonlimmigrant allens, in the United States must register with Sciective Service within the Oday period commencing 20 days prior to their 18th birthday. He stressed that young men actually have three fegal obligations: (1) they must register at age 18, (2) they must notely their local Selective Service board when they change addresses, and (2) they must carry their draft cards with them until their liability expires, which for most men today is at oge 26.

Selective Service is undergoing a major reorganization at this time. Colonel Merrick explained, as the System reverts to a standby opera-
